

PROFILE OF REV. NICHOLAS BAAH-BOISON

Early Life

Rev. Nicholas Baah-Boison was born in Prestea in the Western Region on the 29th of May, 1970 to Nana Kwesi Brebo III, Chief of Kuntu-Saltpond and Madam Janet Banson. He hails from Saltpond – Ankafu in the Central Region, where he lived during the latter stages of his early life.

Education

Rev. Boison started his primary education at Prestea Methodist School and from 1984 to 1987 attended the Experimental Junior Secondary School in Prestea. He was admitted to Methodist High School, Saltpond for his secondary school education between 1987 and 1992 where he sat for the General Certificate of Education (GCE) Ordinary Level in 1992.

In 1995, he was enrolled at Southern Ghana Bible College now Assemblies of God Theological Seminary, where he received his seminary training and graduated in 1998 as a full-time minister of the Assemblies of God, Ghana with a Diploma in Theology.

Driven by his quest for knowledge, Rev. Boison pursued a Bachelor's Degree at the Assemblies of God Theological Seminary, South Campus from 2013 to 2014 where he graduated with a Bachelor of Theology.

He has attended numerous seminars and workshops, to mention but a few:

- Becoming a Person of Influence by the John C. Maxwell Team
- Financial Literacy Training for Micro, Small, and Medium Enterprises by the Business Resource Centre
- Islamic Issues, Agendas, and the Great Commission by Mission Muslim World University
- Training Towards Vision 3000 Missions Conference by the Assemblies of God, Ghana – Missions Department
- Global Teen Challenge Leadership Awareness by Global Teen Challenge
- Advanced Training in Cross-Cultural Missions on "Building a Missionary System: Sending the Right People to the Right Place at the Right Time"

Conversion and Call into the Ministry

In the year 1990, the then Brother Boison was converted in Saltpond through the ministry of Rev. Charles Arko-Nunoo during a Full Gospel Business Men Fellowship International Breakfast meeting. He joined the Saltpond Assemblies of God Church (now Mount Olives A/G). After two years of his conversion, he was baptized in the Holy Spirit with evidence of speaking in tongues. His exposure to the teachings of the word of God helped him to grow into maturity in the work of God.

He received the call to the ministry while at Saltpond A/G church, under the leadership of Rev. Charles Arko-Nunoo. In 1995, he was recommended to attend Southern Ghana Bible College and was successfully admitted where he undertook a three-year course of study in Theology from 1995 to 1998. Upon completion in 1998, he was posted to Saltpond Lower Town (Nankesedo) Assemblies of God church (Progressive A/G) in the Central Region, where he served for four years. He was later transferred to Restoration Center Assemblies of God Church, Agona Nyakrom in 2002, where he currently serves to this day.

Positions Held in the Ministry

Rev. Nicholas Baah-Boison served in various capacities as a minister of God in the Assemblies of God Church, Ghana. From 1999 to 2001, he served as the District Treasurer in the Mfantseman District in the Central Region for three years.

Between 2001 and 2010, he was also elected as the Central Region Missions Director, a position he held for nine years.

Due to his diligent work in missions during his tenure, he was re-elected as the Missions Director from 2014 to 2018 to continue his service in the region.

From 2022 to present, he serves as a member of the Welfare Committee for the Agona District Assemblies of God where he has contributed significantly to the establishment and sustenance of the welfare.

Pastoral Duty

Upon assuming the pastorate in 2002, Rev. Boison pastored the main church, Restoration Centre Assemblies of God Church, in Agona Nyakrom as well as three other branch churches. By God's grace, these three branch churches have now matured and are also considered mother churches. Furthermore, through his leadership, two new branches were established, namely: the Kweku Gyan Assembly and Progressive Assembly, Ahomadonko both near Agona Nkum.

The Agona Nkum and Agona Kwaman A/G churches have since been reassigned to Pastor Isaac Arthur-Keelson (one of the sons he raised) and Agona Mensakrom A/G church, to Lay worker Brother Charles Okai (another son he trained as a lay worker).

Currently, Restoration Centre A/G Church, Agona Nyakrom is the main church he presides over. He has worked tirelessly with all his heart to bring the church to this enviable stage.

Through his able leadership, these churches have experienced tremendous growth both spiritually and physically. The churches have acquired valuable immovable and movable properties.

Church members have been greatly blessed through his ministry. His love and care for them are immeasurable. This includes revival and prayer programs, sound Bible studies, securing a Compassion International, Ghana project for the Agona Nkum Redemption A/G church and community, visitation, organizing free skills training for members to equip them with income generation skills, paying the fees for students, among other initiatives.

Aside from being a pastor, Rev. Boison is also a renowned evangelist and prophet who the Lord has used throughout the country and in some West African countries to revive many churches through weekly revival and prayer festival programs.

Rev. Boison has trained and raised four pastors all of whom have completed their training at the Assemblies of God Theological Seminary, namely: Rev. Benedict Antwi – Sey, Pastor Isaac Arthur-Keelson, Pastor Christian Coffie, and Pastor Titus Paintsil. All of these ministers are currently serving in the Assemblies of God churches.

Additionally, several others, notably.....have been greatly impacted by his ministry and are serving in various denominations.

Social life

Rev. Boison is a remarkable individual who has significant contributions to the development of Agona Nyakrom and the Agona West Municipality since his transfer to Agona Nyakrom. His relationship with the people of Nyakrom is exemplary and he became the favourite among the town's personalities. His respect for every individual is well-known and his spiritual guidance is often sought by the community. The Nyakrom community has been greatly blessed by his ministry.

He is also an accomplished farmer who has contributed to the socio-economic growth of the Agona West Municipality. He was awarded the Overall Best Farmer in the Agona West Municipality in 2015. Nyakrom community and the entire municipality have felt his impact and presence throughout his twenty-three (23) years.

Marriage Life & Family

Rev. Nicholas Baah–Boison married his beautiful, virtuous wife, Mrs. Gifty Baah–Boison, in September 2001. God has blessed them with four wonderful children: Esther Oye, Simeon Awotwe, Nicholas Junior, and Wilhelmina Oduraa.

Due to his love for humanity, the people of Restoration Center A/G church have become part of his family as well. Notable among them is Brother Patrick Baidoo who got converted through Rev. Boison's ministry and has since become an adopted son to the family as well as Mrs Irene Assan Tennyson and several others, to mention just a few.